JUNIPER BARN Our thanks to everyone who encouraged and supported us with our Community lunch on Christmas Day. Eighteen of us sat down to a traditional Christmas feast in Juniper Barn which we all really enjoyed and we hope to do it again.

Looking forward to spring and longer, warmer days, we are introducing a new initiative: 'Meet, chat and play' for parents / carers with babies and toddlers. Come along on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month from 2pm - 4pm, meet others, enjoy tea / coffee and cake - and do tell friends with small children. February 13th and 27th, March 13th and 27th.

We are now selling a small range of seasonal and local fruit and vegetables - do come in and see what we have.

We will be closing for a week from Monday 5th March, re-opening Monday 12th March. Time to refresh, see grandchildren and prepare for Easter. We hope you all understand.

Geoffrey and Katie Boulton

EASTER LILIES AT ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH 2018

This year we will again have memorial lilies in Rendham Church. Lilies in memory of family and friends will be on display over the Easter weekend and through the following week - the names of those to be remembered will also be displayed and read out at the 11:00am Service on Easter Sunday, 1st April. If you would like to order a lily, or lilies, in memory of someone dear to you, please fill in the form on the table at the back of St Michael's Church before the end of Sunday 11th March. Lilies cost £3.50 each and proceeds go to Church funds. Please support us so we have as beautiful a display as we have had in the past. Please order and give your money to either Lynda Newson (663 325) or Lesley Bennion (663 737).

VILLAGE LITTER PICK

If you could spare an hour sometime between Monday 26th February and Sunday 11th March to help with the annual Village Litter Pick it would be much appreciated. As previously, SCDC will supply all the equipment we need, namely gloves, bags and a litter picker and the Parish Council will arrange insurance for us during this period. We cover all the roads around the village and also go in teams along the B1119 from Rendham as far as the A12. There's always plenty to collect so if you'd like to help get rid of it, please get in touch and let me know as soon as possible. Thank you - susandonald@suffolkonline.net
Sue Donald (663 349)

DONATE FOR ST. ELIZABETH'S HOSPICE

National Telephone Day April 25

In aid of St. Elizabeth Hospice Young Adults, Rendham White Horse will be running a mobile phone amnesty to support National Telephone Day on April 25th. Please donate your old or unwanted mobile phones. Also, donations of used ink cartridges and stamps for charity are welcome! Thank you!

RENDHAM PARISH COUNCIL NEWSLETTER

CO-OPTION OF NEW COUNCILLOR - As there were three candidates for the position, a secret ballot was held and won by Tracy Gleeson of Rendham Court. Other candidates were thanked and it was hoped that should there be another vacancy in the future that they will once again put themselves forward. It was good to have such interest.

SCDC CLLR POULTER was unable to attend due to ill health and sent a report with the following headlines. The full report can be read on the village website.

- Off street car parking consultation
- Amendments to renovation grant policy
- Local Council Tax Reduction Scheme
- Capital Programme
- Exempt / Confidential Items
- Introduction of Garden Waste Collection Charging - further report (see Page 5 in this newsletter)
- Waste Offences
- Residents to have say on Leisure

SCC Cllr. Burroughs was unable to attend but forwarded a written report with the following headlines, full report to be published on village website.

- Suffolk school travel consultation
- Suffolk chosen as pilot area to retain 100% business rates
- Central Heating systems funding for fuel poor Suffolk residents
- Primary School application deadline approaches
- Ground investigation for Ipswich's Upper Orwell crossing
- Education high needs consultation

VILLAGE SIGN - There have been comments about the village sign which was installed in 2001 for the millennium. It would appear that the paint work is blistering, probably due to sun and weather. The council is currently looking into the cost of repainting.

COUNCIL PRECEPT - Due to rising costs and commitments the council is having to raise the precept by £200. Rising from £2,200 to £2,400.

MEET THE BISHOPS: On Sunday 4th February, the 10:00am service of Holy Communion in Dennington will be celebrated by the Bishop of Dunwich, Bishop Mike. The 9:30am service of Holy Communion in Sweffling will be celebrated by the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, Bishop Martin. All are welcome and there will be refreshments following both services with an opportunity to meet the Bishops.

DIARY DATE - OPEN GARDENS - Sunday 13th May, Cumberland House Garden open 12:00-5:00PM (17 Cumberland Street, Woodbridge, IP12 4AH). Use Station car park, admission £4, (children free). In aid of the charities supported by the National Garden Scheme. Find out more at www.ngs.org.uk/find-a-garden/garden/35316

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY BOX COLLECTION

2017 A very big thank you to everyone who had a collection box for The Children's Society. Diana Smith and I opened 24 boxes and were able to send £493.60 to The Children's Society to support their invaluable work. Lesley Bennion

SAVE THE DATE - Dennington Plant Sale - 28th April. More details to follow.

RENDHAM MUMMERS LIGHT UP THE LONGEST NIGHT

As in their tradition, Rendham Mummers celebrated the Winter Solstice in style on the Rendham Knoll. Beneath the illuminated 'sacred oak' their Dickensian play 'A Mummers' Christmas Carol' did not fail to disappoint as they lived up to a reputation of '...being never knowingly over rehearsed', delivering an interpretation of this much-loved festive tale in their unique and inimitable style. The Mummers wish to thank all who made this magical event the success it was, and are pleased to be able to donate £750 to their chosen charity - the much deserving Ipswich Outreach Bus.

Rendham Mummers return again on Summer Solstice eve, Thursday 21st June, at Sweffling White Horse, for their 2018 Oak Moon Tour.

RENDHAM VILLAGE FETE OPEN MEETING Rendham Village Fete is scheduled to take place on Saturday 7th July 2018.

Arrangements are in progress and a valued core of volunteers have already pledged support. Please come along to the Rendham Village Hall at 7:30pm on Monday 26th February to join in the discussions, offer ideas, volunteer to help and join in all the fun of the fete!

Denis Moore

MAGAZINES WANTED - The League of Friends at Aldeburgh Hospital have asked for donations of Men's and Women's magazines. They have plenty of House & Home, Gardening, Nature and local magazines but all others gratefully received. Thank you!

COASTAL ACCESSIBLE TRANSPORT SERVICE

Coastal Accessible Transport Services (CATS) provides transport solutions to help anyone who is unable to access public transport due to mobility or rural isolation.

CATS dial-a-ride and community car services are run by volunteer drivers. If you enjoy driving and have some spare time, you may be just the person we are looking for.

Rendham is also covered by our demand responsive bus service which runs into Framlingham and Saxmundham, Monday to Saturday. The service is pre-bookable and bookings can be made two weeks ahead of travel.

We would like to express our gratitude to Rendham Town Estate Charity, Rendham Entertainments and Rendham Parish Council for their continued support and donations. We would also like to thank Malcolm Coulson and Dave Barker for volunteering their time to help us deliver our vital services.

For more information, or if you would like to become a volunteer driver, please contact Lynn or Gary on 830 516 or email cats.manager@cats-paws.co.uk

Lynn Butler

INTRODUCTION OF GARDEN WASTE COLLECTION CHARGING

Be aware that Suffolk Coastal District Council are looking at a timetable to introduce a charge for collecting your garden waste (brown bin) and, as soon as this detailed information is available, it will be circulated to everyone including details of how and when people can join, and pay, should they opt to use the service.

The Parish Council understand that it will cost £43 a year should you opt in.

SCDC say that they are under increasing pressure financially, with dwindling support from central government. It is understood that they will face a budget gap of over £2.8million. Funds raised from the service will be re-invested in providing services to local people and reducing their budget gap.

Providing the organic waste collection and composting service currently costs SCDC over £1.2million a year. The cost has been impacted by a £200,000 per year reduction in support for recycling organic waste provided by the County Council.

The Parish Council has written to Cllr. Carol Poulter about its concerns. These include fly tipping, or dumping, and the cost to clear away - often by local land owners. Concerns include the use of more bonfires to dispose of the waste and the environmental effects of this. Maybe they should provide compost bins?

Cllr Poulter's full report to the Parish Council is available on the Village website on the Minutes Page.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH, RENDHAM - CHURCHWARDEN'S REPORT

On 2 December 2017 our Christmas Market was held in the Village Hall and raised over £420 for the Church. It was a happy social occasion, greatly enhanced by the appearance of Father Christmas. The next one will be even better this year. Our heartfelt thanks to everyone whose hard work and generous contributions ensured its success.

Our Christmas Day service of Holy Communion was conducted by the Rev. Martin Percival and was well attended. The choir sang Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light, and the Nativity Carol by John Rutter.

On 31 December the Rev. Jonathan Olanczuk returned to Rendham to officiate at the wedding of Jonathan Maw and Gemma Austin. The church looked beautiful with the large Christmas Tree still in place and the striking flower arrangements. Very many thanks to Richard Pilgrim and Roger Bennion, and to the Flower Team whose Christmas arrangements were so much appreciated by the many guests at the wedding.

Thanks also to all those who made the annual Fete such a success and who raised such a large sum for the Church, Village Hall and Recreation Field.

At the beginning of the year we want to thank all those who have helped to keep the Church in good order, especially Jean Palmer who undertakes most of the cleaning, Albert who keeps the leaves at bay, and Paul and Lisa who make sure the church is open in the daytime.

Charles Seely & Frances Hill

RINGING NEWS In the world of PR it is said that all news is good news, but this week we had a picture and headlines about bell ringing that seemed all bad. "A teenager got caught in the ropes, forty feet in the air, and had to be rescued by firefighters!"

But the story is a positive one of successful co-operation between the fire service and the ringers. Lots of towers where the ringing chamber is up a narrow newel stair, have to consider in their risk assessment, how to evacuate a casualty, should someone be taken ill or hurt themselves. In this case they had a central hatch that could be readily opened when needed so that the casualty could be lowered by the professionals.

My friends at Worcester Cathedral have conducted exercises with their local firefighters to ensure everyone knows exactly what to do. We haven't had to involve any outside help in Rendham; we are on the ground floor so if anything happens, we can call for help safe in the knowledge that the individual concerned can be evacuated easily, and we know where to stand in the churchyard for signal to call an ambulance!

Our risk assessment led to us installing an emergency light that comes on if the power goes off - we don't want to be in the dark. It also led to us considering the dangers of injury, and how to mitigate that danger, we tackle that in the best way by ensuring our teaching is of the highest standard and so far, as we approach the fifteenth anniversary of the restoration at Easter (yes, fifteen years!), we have had no injuries apart from the odd blister during peals!

So, the good news from the bad news is, in Rendham bell ringing is a safe activity - the main danger being that it can get addictive once you start to learn...

NATURE NOTES FEB - MAR 2018

Early birdsong includes my favourite, the Mistle Thrush. True to form, one was singing loudly at Dernford on New Year's Day. These birds often sing early in the year, and famously even in periods of bad or windy weather. Listen for a very loud, far carrying, song with clear ringing notes, sounding not unlike a Blackbird but with shorter phrases. For extra impact it is usually delivered from high in a tall tree. (Several people have reminded me that there have also been Songthrushes singing, even shorter phrases each clearly repeated several times.) The Mistle Thrush breeding season is surprisingly early, with nesting commencing as early as February. I have talked before about Mistle Thrushes in winter defending berries, in particular on Holly trees, but also on Mistletoe. I saw this for the first time in Benhall, along Mitford Road where there are many large clumps of Mistletoe high up in the trees. A Mistle Thrush was fiercely engaged in driving off another bird (another Mistle Thrush in fact, but they chase off all the thrushes, and indeed any other bird trying to eat the berries in their territory). You can see conspicuous Mistletoe clumps in a number of other places – Friday Street and the surroundings of Ipswich Hospital come to mind. It is commonest on Lime trees, or Poplar as in a few trees in Sweffling, as well as being well known on Apple trees in some older orchards.

The Tawny Owl is probably the commonest owl in the valley, and can be heard at night all through the year. Despite the fact that one sometimes calls from the big oak tree close to our house, I find that I very seldom see them. We did see one from the car at night, in early January along the Glemham Road. Although the Tawny's underparts are streaked dark brown, lit up by the car's headlights they can sometimes look quite pale, as this one did, making it possible to confuse with a Barn Owl. Barn Owls are seen more frequently along the roadside, as this is one of their hunting grounds, and they start to hunt earlier in the evening. They are even whiter, with much longer wings than the Tawny.

We have been looking out for Redpolls on the bird feeders, and by the middle of January two of these tiny finches were once again here. There are still only three so far, but in some years they have built up in numbers later in the winter. They are almost always on the feeder supplied with the small, black Niger seed, which is so attractive to Goldfinches. At the moment they are brown, with just a small patch of brilliant crimson on the forehead, but as spring brings on their breeding colours, the breasts of the males will become increasingly pink.

In winter I have often referred to the catkins of Hazel, the familiar 'Lambs' Tails' as a sign of spring to look out for. This year I am too late – the dangling, bright yellow catkins have been showing since early January, presumably for reasons of weather. Hazel is common in the hedges in our area, but trimming may reduce the show so that it is less conspicuous. The problem with early flowering is that the pollen from the catkins, blown by wind, needs to find the minute red stars which are the female flowers (and from which the Hazelnuts develop). I haven't seen any of these yet, but they are extremely difficult to spot. Compare other catkins, those of the Alder trees along the river, which are larger and redder than the Hazel and which develop a little later. Their pollen fertilises tiny fruits which develop into the pinecone-like structures so distinctive of Alder, and whose seeds are so important as natural food for Redpolls, Goldfinches and Siskins about now.
